The call of Commissioner Waldo of the General's o'el last night singing and Texas Traffic Association for a meeting of shouting "Vive Boulanger." the members at the Coates house in this city yesterday was responded to by a goodly number of general managers and treffic efficials. The meeting was called to acjust T. xas rates which have been democalized from all points south of the Missouri river ever since the sunt on rates began in the northwest. A new line has also appeared in that southwest territory which has proved a big thorn in the side of existing lines. It is the Fort Worth and Derver City. General Manager Meeks commenced a vigorus fight for business and a good place smong the other lines when his line was spen for traffi; and he has demonstrated that something must be done at this meet ing or the Texas Traffic Association will come a thing of the past.
